Life's Passions

They say everyone has a passion in life. Some have football or running or knitting, well I have two, Music and God. I have dabbled in many aspects of music. I have played many instruments, piano, violin, recorder and Bodhran but sadly I have to add not all very well. I have played the guitar for over 50 years and recently I started to learn to play bass guitar. Less strings but far more involved. There is a saying "Without music life would Bb"! (Musicians will understand!). I have been fortunate in that I have been able to link my passion for music with my passion for God. Church music is often thought of as a bit highbrow, but it covers all aspect from Rock to Country to Classical. I have sung Handel's Messiah, but I have also play Christian rock and roll!

God understands each of us and caters for all our tastes and inclinations on the music front. Many of the Psalms in the bible were the hymns or religious songs of the day. Many of the hymns in our hymn book today can be linked back to Psalms. Everyone knows the hymn 'The Lord's my Shepherd', well that is Psalm 23 set to music. Psalm 150 mentions a few instruments that can be used to praise God. Trumpet, Harp, Lyre, Strings, Flute and with the clash of cymbals. To me that makes a pretty good orchestra! Ephesians 5:19 says "Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs. Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord." I find that singing a hymn to myself (nobody needs to hear my warbles!) often gets me nearer to God and can set me up for most situations. Just as there are many types of instruments and many sounds that they can make so we too are very different. We have different tastes in music, and all have different needs in our life. Music, in its collective form, can offer comfort, encouragement and peace in our lives. God can meet the needs of each of us too. God is not restricted to any situation, building or age of person.

When I'm playing my guitar, I have to regularly check that it is in tune otherwise the music is really off and hurts the ears. In my life too I have to regularly check that I am in tune with God otherwise my life is really off, and everything hurts. I invite you now to check in with God to see if your life is in tune.

God bless you.

Steve Adcock, St Mary's Church

We approach another winter. Ensure you take care of your health. Those eligible for immunisations like the Influenza (Flu) and RSV would have heard from the practice and have appointments. Please contact the practice if you haven't heard and are eligible. The practice is only delivering the Covid vaccination to care home and housebound patients. This month, I focus on communication between the hospital, the practice and patients. Many departments do copy the letter to the GP to you, the patient. This is essential, as it is a summary of the consultation in hospital and it allows you to go over it again in your own time. For us in the practice, it is extremely helpful especially if medication changes have been recommended. This can either be addition of a new medication, cessation of a medication or a dose reduction or increase in medication. If you do not hear from the practice within 2 – 3 weeks of your hospital appointment, please contact the practice through Reception or Dispensary.

In most cases the practice receives the letter in time, but occasionally there can be a delay in the appropriate clinician acting on the information either at the hospital or at the practice, due to various reasons like staff illness, shortage of staff and annual leave. The practice wants to ensure efficient and safe care and is working constantly on trying to improve services. One of the ways would be for you to contact us after a reasonable period which is usually 2 – 3 weeks after a hospital appointment. Please do not run out of your new or adjusted medication before contacting us.

Let us work together to look after your health and to help us practice in a satisfying and productive way.

Have a happy and healthy start to Winter 2024.

Dr Mini Nelson

2nd Long Stratton Brownies

At the start of our Autumn Term we were pleased to welcome three new girls into our Brownie Pack. On the first evening we played some 'getting to know you' games and some old favourites 'heads and tails', imaginary ball, over and under. We also got the hoops and catch ball out in the field whilst the weather is still light enough for some outside activities.

We are looking forward to planning a Brownie Sleepover later in the term and continuing to work on the Brownie Programme.

We still have a few places for any girls aged 7-10 years, please register on <https://www.girlguiding.org.uk/information-for-parents/register-a-child>. If you would like more information please telephone Brown Owl, Josie Thurston 01508 531100.

BIKE ACTIVE NORFOLK

As BikeActive Norfolk approaches it's second anniversary, I just want to reflect briefly on what has been achieved. So far we have delivered over three hundred and fifty separate rides to eighty five different rider clients, all of whom struggle to cycle through disability, illness or injury.

Our twenty five volunteers have run on over forty adult dates at Earsham or Topcroft, as well as eight junior dates. We have acquired a plethora of disability equipment that ensures we can get almost anyone out cycling with us

We have raised large sums of money through the National Lottery, Sport England, Clarion Futures as well as the Norfolk Community Foundation Trusts, Love Norfolk and Saracen Funds, as well as smaller but significant donations from, St James Place Foundation, Long Stratton Lions and the Harleston Masons.

Despite these generous funders we are also obliged to try to raise funds ourselves to show our intent to become self sustaining. To achieve this we are running a wonderful cycle themed event at Earsham village hall, NR35 2TL on Saturday the 12th and Sunday the 13th of October 2023 between 10am and 3pm. At this event there will be an incredible Tour de France memorabilia display, wonderful cakes, a fun roller racing event and the chance to try our many disability cycles. It will be a happy fun event for a great cause, please come along if you can.

Our final Junior group of the year takes place at the multi use games area at Long Stratton, Manor Park, NR15 2XR on Wednesday the 30th of October 2024. Sessions for disabled young people will run at 1pm until 1.40pm, then from 1.40pm to 2.20pm. The last 40 minute session will be for all young people aged under eighteen years to come try our many pedal cycles, go karts, quadracycles, rear steer tandems and side by side tandem trikes. If you wish to attend the last session please contact Anastasia Twigg the Long Stratton Town Council Youth worker and make her aware of your interest. Younger children will need adult permission to participate. Anastasia can be contacted on 01508 530524. For disability sessions see BikeActiveNorfolk.org or contact Jez on 07716103072

BikeActive Norfolk look forward to seeing people of Long Stratton support this Long Stratton based charity. Jez Briggs

LONG STRATTON & DISTRICT WI

Do you remember listening to Wally Webb on Radio Norfolk? For long time residents of the county he has been a central figure of local radio for over 40 years. It was fascinating to hear him talk to us about his life, how he came to be involved in radio programmes, through to the present day when he is in great demand giving talks and film shows to many clubs and organisations. His wife, Sheri, who had been his producer back in the day, accompanied him. We had a very pleasant evening with a number of extra visitors.

At the beginning of August a group of our members met up in Norwich for lunch at the Lamb Inn. There had been a few changes since our previous visits pre Covid but we enjoyed the meal and a chance to shop afterwards.

In early September a group of ladies visited Southwold for the day. The weather was excellent and it was exhilarating watching the huge waves breaking on the beach. A number of different activities were enjoyed - lunch on the pier, some had fish and chips, walks on the marshes, visits to the pier, museum, beach, shops, and a short tour of St. Edmunds Church.

The church dates from the fifteenth century and has many original or restored features from that time. We were particularly intrigued by the "Jack strike the clock" figure. Jack is dressed as a soldier from the Wars of the Roses and uses his battle axe to strike a bell. The clock has long since disappeared but the bell is still struck to announce the start of church services or special occasions such as the entry of a bride for her wedding.

At our September meeting we will welcome back Tony Brown who will talk about the Norfolk broads and its wildlife, and illustrate this with his excellent photography. If you would like to come along to Long Stratton Village Hall at 7.30pm on Wednesday 18th September, you can be sure of a warm welcome.

THARSTON & DISTRICT WI

As I write the weather looks decidedly wintry. The wind is blowing leaves from the trees, I know it is September.....but! How fortunate we have all been this summer with lots of sunshine.

For our July meeting we were entertained by 'Stuff and Folly' with some short amusing sketches typical of those for radio.

Tharston & District WI went on our annual coach trip on a very hot day in August. We visited the Time and Tide Museum in Great Yarmouth. We were divided into two groups for a tour and this was fascinating. We learnt much about the former fishing industry, including smoking of kippers – which we could still smell! There was an example of the narrow rows of houses and we were amazed that most of the old town walls are still standing. An interesting visit, learning the history of this seaside town. We then travelled on to Fairhaven Gardens where we spent a relaxing afternoon. The cost of the coach and entry to the museum was paid for from monies raised during the year, so this as a lovely bonus for our members.

Our September meeting will show us 'how to become a Roman Empress' – if only! We always enjoy refreshments at our meetings as well as lots of chat and laughter. We meet at Wacton Village Hall on the second Thursday of the month at 7.30.

If You Can Speak, You Can Sing!

COMMUNITY SINGING

If you're looking for a traditional choir, we're not what you're looking for!

Wacton's community singing group is facilitated by Creative Singing Studios, NeuroVocal™ certified Voice Coach, Louise Tingley.

The NeuroVocal™ Method exercises are designed to stimulate changes in the brain, which allows voice users to normalise vocal stamina, range, and strength. The adaptive methods of training, guide voice users to an interoceptive experience of phonation, allowing them to utilise the predictive nature of the brain to alter existing motor responses to the intention - to sing. Beyond building new neural pathways and motor skills

At heart, we're just a laid-back community of people who love to sing.

Our repertoire is as diverse as it is fun, ranging from music by Avenged Sevenfold and Metallica to Disney classics, show tunes, and hits by artists like Lauren Daigle, Miley Cyrus, and Elvis Presley.

We enjoy the music, have a laugh, and focus more on the joy that is and can be experienced through singing, rather than the rigid perfection often associated with classical music or choral traditions. It's about the freedom to express yourself, have fun, and connect with others in a supportive and vibrant community.

We'd love you to come along! We meet Tuesday evenings 7:00 - 8:30pm at Wacton Village Hall. £5 per person. No need to read music. No auditions. Music & Lyrics provided! Everyone is welcome —join us anytime!

Two Pulhams; One Walk

The picturesque green at Pulham Market was the starting point for our September walk. We left the magnificent church to our left but were soon reminded of the green. On the way down Station Road we passed a house with a picture of the village depicted on the wall, apparently an example of the art of pargetting. What an amazing art work!

We were not on the road for long as we turned left beside beautiful woodland. We crossed the stream and emerged onto a straight flat path. This was the route of the railway which once ran between the Pulhams. As we enjoyed the peace we wondered about how people felt in 1855 when their farmland was invaded by huge and noisy engineering works. Then in 1953 how did they feel about the closure as the railway closed and traffic on the roads increased year by year? The path ran parallel to the stream. It was small and we couldn't decide which way it was flowing but it was lined by mature willows and oaks with superb acorns reminding us that autumn was beginning. We had been warned that this was a figure of eight walk, the turning point being rather smelly. Well, farmyard smells don't deter country walkers as we left the pile on our right and turned uphill and then left again towards Semere Lane. We were expecting to have to walk along the lane where we could see speedy tractors passing. However, the footpath continued along the field edge. When we did reach the lane there was much speculation about the crop growing in the opposite field. Could it really be a whole field of coriander? Another field edge path brought us out on another Station Road. If you look for this path from the road you might have to stand on your head! (See picture). We headed down hill to the relics of Pulham St. Mary station. A notice advised us to follow the old railway track rather than the beautiful footpath along the Pulham Beck. Yes, the path between huge oaks, many with bird boxes attached, was quite tricky. When the brambles and nettles threatened to close in we left the path, following its route through the water meadow. This is where we had the delight of hearing an owl calling before we rejoined the footpath. A tall stile brought us back to the smelly turning point for our figure of eight. We crossed the stream by a concrete bridge and followed round the next field finally emerging on the main road just before the Pulham Market sign. There was a good pavement to lead us up past the school back to the cars where Liz had raspberry shortbread for us to add to the blackberries and bullace which had kept us well nourished on the walk.

Thank you, Paul, for a very varied and interesting walk in one of the most beautiful areas in easy reach of Long Stratton.

Next walk October 7th. Everyone welcome for a leisurely walk of about four miles. Meet near the Long Stratton public toilets at 10.00am

LONG STRATTON LIBRARY

Children can get creative with this year's Summer Reading Challenge, Marvellous Makers, which launches in Norfolk libraries on Saturday 6 July.

The Summer Reading Challenge is a FREE holiday activity for children aged 4-11. It's all about reading for fun, aiming to improve children's reading skills and confidence. Children can read anything they like (really – anything!) and collect free rewards for their reading. For under 5s there is a mini challenge, so they don't miss out.

Just pop into your local library or visit www.norfolk.gov.uk/summerreadingchallenge to sign up. Children will need to be library members - you can do this in a library or online. It's free of charge and children will receive their own library card for which there are no overdue fees.

This year's Challenge is all about creativity. From dance to drawing, junk modelling to music, there's something for everyone! Children will be able to find new reads linked to their favourite creative arts and join in with free activities at their local library. Search for Norfolk Libraries to find out what's on in your local branch.

The Summer Reading Challenge is developed by The Reading Agency and delivered in partnership with public libraries. This year's theme has been developed in partnership with Create, a leading charity bringing creative arts to those who need it most.
